JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

The Plaintiff and Defendants hereby ask this Court to extend the time within which to complete discovery to include up and through March 31, 2005. In support thereof, counsel representing the above-named parties represent that they have several trials scheduled during the next couple of months and have attempted in good faith to schedule depositions and other discovery matters. A very short discovery period had originally been set for this case and the parties are now seeking additional time to reasonably allow them to conduct appropriate discovery. The parties state that they have not requested any previous enlargement of time in this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,

The Plaintiff,
Yvette Lockhart-Bembery,
By Her Attorney,

The Defendants,
